

DIPLOMA IN NLP PSYCHOTHERAPY

This Psychotherapy Diploma programme is for NLP Master Practitioners wishing to transfer their NLP learning into a therapeutic context. This 2 year programme aims to train delegates to the level required for application to become an accredited NLPtCA (Neuro Linguistic Psychotherapy & Counselling Association) member and registration with the UKCP (United Kingdom for Psychotherapy) (both organisations requiring separate individual application with associated fees). This course is aimed at Master Practitioners who meet the entry criteria (please see website for a checklist), who want to train in the field of Psychotherapy and apply their NLP knowledge and skill within a therapeutic setting, offering counselling or psychotherapy. You will study a variety of related psychotherapeutic topics. For further details, please see the course brochure on the website.

Level of learning support:

Throughout the entire programme, you will receive ongoing feedback from the Course Tutors, as well as peer feedback. You will be required to keep your own Personal Development Log as part of your Reflexive Practice. Every opportunity will be sought to ensure your skill and practice as a Psychotherapist is developed ethically and that you are working at the standards laid down by the NLPtCA.

The Course Tutors:

We are extremely lucky to be able to offer the delivery of this programme with a variety of highly credible Guest Tutors, some of whom are extremely well known within the NLP world. Having such a diverse range of course tutors, enables us to offer a unique programme with a depth and breadth of theory and practical experience, enhancing the learning experience of our delegates, as well as providing continuity with our Core Tutor, Vicky Smith, who plays a pivotal role throughout the entire programme. Our course tutors include:

- * Vicky Smith - UKCP Registered Psychotherapist, Clinical Supervisor and International Trainer, Facilitator and Executive Coach
- * Penny Tompkins - from the Clean Language movement and a key member in the development of NLPt
- * James Lawley - from the Clean Language movement and a key member in the development of NLPt
- * Karin Shelley-Martens - qualified Psychotherapist and Psychotherapy Lecturer at Christ Church University
- * Jane Drout - GP, Registered Psychotherapist and lecturer in at the University of Kent, Canterbury's Medical Centre

Your investment: please see course brochure for Early Bird Discount and interest free payment options.

Additional requirements:

In addition to meeting the entry criteria, delegates will be required to undertake regular Clinical Supervision of their client work. Delegates will also be required to undertake their own Personal Therapy with an Accredited NLPtCA Psychotherapist. Delegates will also be required to become members of the NLPtCA. All of these additional requirements will incur costs to the individual that fall outside of the programme investment.
